The Vikings - First Impression

Your task today is to use a Reading skill, inference, to tell your teacher what impression you have about the Vikings.

Do you think they were a kind people? Do you think they were peaceful? How else might you describe them?

Using the song and the pictures below, write your first impression on the next sheet.

This is your chance to show what you already know about the Vikings and what you would like to know. If you don't know anything about them yet, just say what you would like to know.

What I already know about the Vikings:
