

R.E. Autumn 1 Year 4

Prior Learning: Understanding Diwali (light as a symbol)

Words we will know!

4. Communicate

TWAL: to communicate our ideas about good and evil.

We will describe our own responses to the concepts of good and evil.

3. Evaluate

TWAL: to evaluate the importance of good and evil for Hindus.

We will describe the importance of Hindus valuing good overcoming evil.

The Rama and Sita story is so important because it teaches Hindus about how good is more important than evil.

5. Apply

TWAL: to apply our ideas of good and evil to the lives of others.

We will describe examples of how responses to good and evil affect our lives and the lives of other people.

Theme: Diwali

Concept: Good and Evil

Most Hindu people celebrate Diwali (also written Diwali) which is the festival of light. Most Hindus dress in brightly coloured clothes, decorate their houses in bright colours and light candles.

2. Contextualise

TWAL: to contextualise good and evil in the Hindu faith.

We will describe ways in which Hindus remember good and evil in the story and celebrations of Diwali.

The evil Ravana kidnapped Sita and Rama rescued her and brought her back to the city. Hindus celebrate Rama, who is good, defeating Ravana, who is evil.

1. Inquire

TWAL: to inquire about the concepts of good and evil.

We will describe the concepts of good and evil.
