

R.E. Year 4 Summer 1

Prior Learning: understanding of Diwali and rites of passage.

Words we will know!

4. Communicate

TWAL: to communicate our own understanding of good and evil.

We will describe our own responses to the concepts of good and evil.

3. Evaluate

TWAL: to evaluate the importance of good and evil in the stories and celebration. We will describe the value of the ways in which good over evil is celebrated and identify an issue raised.

Hindus celebrate good triumphing over evil by holding religious ceremonies, with dancing, singing or throwing of powder paint and coloured water.

5. Apply

TWAL: to apply the concepts to different situations.

We will describe incidents in our own and others' lives where good comes out of evil.

Theme: Holi

Concept: Good and Evil

Holi is celebrated by most Hindus and usually happens over 1 day in March. It celebrates spring, love, and new life.

2. Contextualise the concepts in the story and celebrations of Holi

TWAL: to contextualise good and evil for Hindus.

We will describe ways in which Hindus remember good and evil in the story of Holi and celebrations of Holi.

Evil - The demon king Hiranyakashyap ruled the world. He tried to kill his son because he did not worship him.

Good - Lord Vishnu saved Prahlad every time.

1. Inquire into the concepts of good and evil.

TWAL: to inquire into good and evil.

We will describe the concepts of good and evil through making a collage using newspaper and magazine snippings.
