Holiday Activities and Food

The programme offers valuable support to families on lower incomes, giving them the opportunity to access rewarding and active activities alongside healthy meals over the school holidays.

Following the success for the programme in Southampton in 2021 we are delighted to have been awarded funding to run the programme for the next three years in the city.

We welcome, understand and value all applicants with additional needs. We recognise that the needs of these children across the city vary, and that is why we aim to meet and provide an inclusive approach within this programme.

Here's what we have been up to...

May 2023

Transition to Adulthood Fair

The sun is shining and we have had a really busy few weeks with some exciting things happening which we hope to be able to share really soon...!

We decided to do our own training on peer support this week and invited along some members of staff and volunteers who run groups and courses. We wanted to do our own training so spent several months reading and researching to make sure we got it right! We defined what we believe a good support group should look like, the guidance we want families to follow, how to lead a group and deal with some of the trickier issues. It was a really great morning and just reminded us of how important peer support is. We know that 71% of parents/carers have their own mental health issues and so we need to make sure we are supporting them in the best way possible. We want to make the best of our team being experts at not being experts, using our lived experience, empathy and understanding.

We spent the afternoon learning our new database, Charity Log, which was a steep learning curve for all of us, but we are enjoying getting to grips with it and excited at how easy it will be to create reports!

Advice Clinics

Advice clinics have been busy over the last few weeks, with lots of advice on mental health, autism, ADHD and SEND Legal advice. We were delighted to run our first SEND advice clinic with Tammy Marks and Kirsty Relton; this was a great opportunity for parents/carers to talk to them and get on the spot advice about special education needs. We are hoping to begin our LGBTQ+ advice clinics with Breakout Youth very soon.

NFPP

We have been inundated with requests for the New Forest Parenting Programme which supports issues around ADHD. Due to demand we have funded an extra course online which we are running alongside our face to face group. In the autumn we are hoping to trial a new NFPP course for teenagers. The amazing Cathy Laver-Bradbury is currently rewriting NFPP due to the number of requests we have had for something to support teenagers.
